Civil Procedure Code (Synthetic) | Page 1

CHAPTER I — PRELIMINARY

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Civil Procedure Code.
5. Every application to a court for relief or remedy obtainable through the exercise of the court's power or authority, or otherwise to invite its interference, constitutes an action.

CHAPTER II — OF THE MODE OF INSTITUTION OF ACTION

40. Every action shall ordinarily be instituted by presenting a written plaint to the court of first instance of competent jurisdiction.
46. The plaint shall contain a statement in a summary form of the material facts on which the plaintiff relies for his claim, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved, and shall be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively.
75. The defendant may present a written answer. The answer shall contain a statement of the material facts on which the defendant relies for his defence, and shall specifically deny or admit each of the allegations of fact in the plaint.
