

COMPANIES ACT (SYNTHETIC EXCERPT)

Companies Act (Synthetic) | Page 1

PART I — INCORPORATION OF COMPANIES

2. Any two or more persons associated for any lawful purpose may, by subscribing their names to a memorandum of association and otherwise complying with the requirements of this Act in respect of registration, form an incorporated company.

3. The memorandum of every company shall state the name of the company, whether the company is limited by shares or by guarantee, and the objects for which the company is established.

PART II — DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT

45. Every company shall have at least one director. A director shall act in good faith and in the best interests of the company, and shall exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

52. A director who is interested in a transaction or proposed transaction with the company shall disclose the nature and extent of that interest to the board as soon as practicable after the director becomes aware of the facts that give rise to the interest.
